Re: Laurel Street Parking Restriction

Cindy Lucenti reached out to the traffic division regarding a parking situation across the street from 171 Laurel Street, RiverView apartments, where she is the property manager. The complex also owns an overflow parking area across the street on Laurel Street that has no specific address, but is listed as parcel number 26-140.

RiverView performed improvements on this parking lot and added handicap ramps to include one 25 feet east of the parking lot apron to enter the roadway. Cindy stated that this ramp is commonly blocked by parked vehicles and has led to one person being injured trying to access this ramp. I was unable to locate a medical call in relation to this reported injury.

I reviewed the area and located the handicap ramp with a matching ramp directly across the street to access the sidewalk near the main driveway portion of RiverView apartments. Several times I also observed parked vehicles blocking this ramp, most likely unintentionally.

Recommendations:

Add "No parking beyond this sign" east of the handicap ramp
Add "No parking this side of sign" west of the parking lot apron

With these two signs, it will create an obvious parking restriction zone for the overflow lot of RiverView apartments, and allow parking outside of this zone, limiting disruption for the neighbors of Laurel Street.

Thank you,

Lieutenant Patrick Krajewski
Traffic Commander

5. REVIEW OF IDEAS SUBMITTED BY THE PUBLIC

The Committee discussed ideas submitted by the public as well as suggestions offered by the committee.

- PBA working with Public Works to redesign the memorial in front of the police department for fallen officers.
- Adding a memorial to the Memorial Boulevard.
- Creating a City Square for fallen officers at intersection of Hope and North Main and Hope and Riverside.
- Dedicating part of a street without renaming the whole street.
- Dedicating the sign plaques on bridges to fallen officers.
- Add on to pre-existing Edgewood Little League police and firefighter memorial.
- Monument made with police cruiser.
- Redesign outside front entrance of the Bristol Police Department to incorporate the memorial for fallen officers.
- Preserve police cruiser with messages written on it.
- It was agreed upon the memorial will be a physical structure or renaming of a street or building rather than multiple events listed on submitted ideas.
- Memorial Boulevard is to honor veterans, the memorial for our fallen officers should be separate from the boulevard.
- Memorial Boulevard's bridge has already been dedicated to the armed forces.
- Renaming of a street is very difficult process and not practical for residents.
